Milestones . . . roadmarkers in

Our first Milestones at Eastern are now dim memories of the past, happy ones of then new and exciting experiences—those of meeting new people and gaining higher education.

Each attainment, great or small, has been in itself a Milestone which marks the familiar paths of cultural and intellectual development.

The ultimate Milestone of our college years is that of Commencement, the beginning of our climb toward other goals in life.

Glenn Presnell, former All-American and professional grid star is in his sixth year as head coach of the Eastern Maroons. Presnell played for Nebraska where he was named All-American halfback. His college coaching began at the University of Kansas, but a year later he returned to his Alma Mater, Nebraska. In 1947, Presnell started coaching the backfield at Eastern. Five years ago, in his initial year as head coach, he guided the Maroons to their most successful grid season in history, their first Ohio Valley Conference Championship and a trip to the Tangerine Bowl.

Fred Darling, one of the all-time great tackles to play at Eastern, and a former Eastern Little All-American, joined the coaching staff in 1947 as assistant line coach. Darling, holder of five degrees, also coached Eastern's track team for ten years and compiled an enviable record.

Don Lear, former North Carolina grid star, is in his second year as a backfield coach. Lear was an outstanding all around athlete in high school, earning four letters each in football, basketball, and track. At North Carolina he was handed the title, "King Lear" for his ability to dominate play on the gridiron.

Al Glen Gossett is beginning his first year in the college coaching ranks. He holds a B.S. degree from Northeast State College where he lettered four years in football, four in basketball, and one year in baseball.

Robert J. Synovitz, a graduate of Wisconsin State College, is the latest member to join the Eastern coaching staff. A regular end and linebacker while at Wisconsin State, he participated in both the Cigar Bowl in 1951, and the Shrimp Bowl in 1955.

Senior Lettermen

Joe Graybeal from Somerset, Kentucky, was one of the co-captains this season. Big and agile, he loves to play and is considered one of the outstanding centers in Eastern's history. Joe, a three-year letterman, backed up the line and called defensive signals.

Steve Herczeg, a 235 pounder from Chicago, Illinois, failed to see a lot of action last year due to a dislocated elbow suffered early in the season. Steve looked good in spring practice; and, because of determination, he played a fine season this past year. Equally sharp on both offense and defense, he has earned three varsity letters.

Below: Maroons at practice.

Frank Asbury from Jenkins, Kentucky, was a fine all-around player this year. Asbury was moved from guard post to an end position last spring but could be used at both positions. A good, crisp blocker, and an outstanding defensive player, he has earned three varsity letters.

Orville Howard, 195 pound senior from Pineville, Kentucky, was a starter this fall. Orville, who is a three-year letterman, was very rugged on defense and a fine blocker.

EASTERN
MAROONS

Jim Baechtold, one of Eastern's all-time great athletes, has completed his third year as coach of the Maroon Freshman Squad and as Assistant to Head Coach Paul McBryer.

Larry Wood, a three-time All-Conference performer during his college career at Eastern, returned this year to continue his studies and assist Coach McBryer with the Eastern Varsity.

Coach McBryer accomplished one of his greatest coaching successes last year when he inspired his team to capture the OVC Championship. McBryer is nationally known as a master of the game, a basketball fundamentalist with a genius for developing his players into sound teams. Along with his teaching of fundamentals and his strict insistence on training rules, McBryer takes a deep personal interest in every player's scholastic progress, and he keeps a watchful eye on their overall development.

Coach Paul McBryer, a native of Anderson County, Kentucky, and a 1930 All-American guard at the University of Kentucky has completed his fourteenth season as head coach of the Eastern Kentucky Maroons.

R.; Redmond, L.; Upchurch, J.; Cole, C.; and Coach Paul McBrayer.

Bruce Springgate, a two-year letterman, is the only graduating senior. Bruce was one of the top reserves in the Conference during 1959 and was an outstanding player this past season. He had an uncanny sense of being where the ball was which enabled him to make many recoveries and prove to be a valuable player.

Below: Coach Paul McBrayer is shown with his two returning starters, Jack Upchurch and Carl Cole, from last season's Ohio Valley Conference Championship team. The winner's trophy displayed is Eastern's fourth in the eleven-year history of the Conference.
